FRIENDS OF INTEGRATIVE HEALTH AND WELLNESS | Founding Friends

As the UC Center for Integrative Health and Wellness strives to fulfill its vision of becoming a transformational leader, it will need to expand its reach to an ever-growing population that will benefit from its focus on prevention, early intervention and healing. In an effort to accomplish this objective from a grassroots approach, which will complement other marketing efforts, the Center's Community Advisory Council approved the establishment of a "Friends of Integrative Health and Wellness" program.

Interested community members will be able to forge an in-depth relationship with the Center. The goal of the program is to create advocates, increase participation in the Center's activities and advance opportunities for involvement with volunteer and development efforts. One important outcome will be more involved, enlightened community members who are prepared to take responsibility for their and others' health and well-being.

We would like you to be a champion of integrative health and wellness and help grow the Center's base of support by becoming a "Founding Friend" of the Center's Friends of Integrative Health and Wellness program. By doing so, Founding Friends agree to:

- Provide an annual gift of at least $1,000 to the UC Center for Integrative Health and Wellness to advance the Friends initiative and the academic mission of the Center.
- Work with fellow Friends to develop engagement and educational activities on behalf of the program.

Founding Friends will enjoy the following benefits:

- Invitation to Founding Friends and Sustaining Friends receptions associated with the Center's community outreach programs, symposia, social gatherings and other events.
- An annual report on the activities of the Center and the impact of your generosity.
- Membership into the University of Cincinnati Charles McMicken Society.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Mike Zenz at (513) 558-3355 or Michael.Zenz@uc.edu. He will be able to answer your questions and facilitate your contribution.
