Resident Spotlight
A 17yo with PMHx of ADHD presents with new onset seizures and has the following findings on physical exam. What is the likely diagnosis?

Medical Trivia

Congrats to Nedhi Patel for ID’ing calcium oxalate crystals in ethylene glycol toxicity. Aditi Mulgund and Syeda Ahmad were just a few minutes behind! Read more about the images here.

Epic

Do’s and Don’ts

Do
- Document at least 10 systems in your ROS on an H&P
- Document at least 9 systems in your physical exam on an H&P

Don’t
- Document a DRE on your daily progress note UNLESS you are actually performing one. In other words, do not copy forward your physical exam findings or use a template unless you edit it daily. If you find this difficult, consider using NoteWriter for your ROS or PE.

SHOUT OUTS!!!

- To Betsy Larder for recognizing necrotizing fasciitis and urgently transferring a VA patient to UC overnight. Good work!
- To Rachel John—she was a natural while discussing goals of care with a patient!
- To Catherine Strahle and Taku Xu for helping out a senior on a rough day.
- To Greg Wigger and Jane LeSaint for being AWESOME seniors and totally deserving of more shoutouts (since they’ve been on a drought for a while)!
- To Geoff Motz for ensuring a patient was getting the care they needed despite signing out hours prior; your dedication to patients is amazing!
- To Kelly Grannan for being a great patient advocate and managing extremely ill hem/onc patients with thoughtfulness
- To Daniel Tim for ensuring a discharged patient with hypoglycemia was safe.
- To Dr. Neel for helping teach at AHD this week—our Neuro exams will never be the same!
- To Liz Bauke for her recent promotion to Program Manager
- To Saagar Sanghvi, Leslie Applegate, Matt Cortese, Jeff Miller, Ji Kang, Logan Roof, Kelsey Sparks, Annie Wehry, and Taku Xu for their excellent job in clinical documentation—the coding staff greatly appreciate it!
