University of Cincinnati College of Medicine Office of Research

News for the week of August 5, 2019

UC Health Office of Clinical Research.
You are invited to come and listen to research participants discuss their experiences in a research study. Ask questions, learn and hear how research teams impact clinical research. Attend this Lunch and Learn on August 15, 2019 in MSB E155 from noon to 1pm. For more information, contact Nate.Harris@uchealth.com.

KL2 Research Scholars Career Development Awards.
Funded by a National Institutes of Health (NIH) Clinical and Translational Science Award (CTSA), the CCTST offers the KL2 Research Scholars mentored career development award to eligible faculty. The applicant must have a full-time faculty appointment at the University of Cincinnati (UC), Cincinnati Children’s, or Cincinnati Veterans Affairs Medical Center (VAMC) at the time of the award. The KL2 program generally provides 75% salary support (up to $100,000/year) plus $25,000 in research-related expenses for up to 2 consecutive years to highly qualified junior faculty pursuing careers in clinical and translational research. Scholars are required to complete a series of courses either prior to or during their KL2 award period. Scholars have an opportunity for externships with outside organizations, such as a pharmaceutical company, clinical research organization, or another CTSA institution.

Biomedical Career Preparation and Opportunities.
The Office of Graduate Education offers its annual 2 credit course on biomedical career preparation and opportunities starting on Wednesday, August 28th, 4-6 pm in E255 MSB. Graduate students and postdocs are welcome. Register for GNTD8003: “Career Opportunities in Biomedical Science”.
