News for the week of December 16, 2019

Best Practices in Grants Management.
The Office of Research is hosting a training on December 17th from Noon-5pm in 450 University Hall. This event is targeted to those responsible for managing anticipated and awarded grants and contracts in the UC Flex accounting system. Topics include: manual A323 preparation, best practices in grant management and cost transfer training. RSVP via email: jasoncca@ucmail.uc.edu

UC Health Office of Clinical Research Education Opportunity.
Join the Lunch & Learn on December 19th in MSB E225 at 12:00pm. The Office of Clinical Research has recently updated the submission process for UC Health research approval with the addition of an all-electronic method of submission. Zachary Johnson, Operations Administrator, will present a walk-through of this update and the steps involved. For more information, please contact Nate Harris, Nate.Harris@uchealth.com.

Collaboration & Team Science Spring Course.
Faculty, staff, fellows, and graduate students working in transdisciplinary teams are invited to sign up for a collaboration & team science course. This course will study literature on the dynamics of teams and include an examination of the construction and maintenance of high functioning teams. This is a great opportunity to learn how to overcome institutional barriers and other challenges faced by translational researchers navigating a professional career in a team-based environment. Jack Kues, PhD, Director of the Center for Improvement Science is the course instructor. Classes are scheduled for Fridays from 10-12pm during the spring semester. The deadline for registration is January 19th. For questions contact: Rachel Meyer, meyer2rh@ucmail.uc.edu.

Call for Abstracts – Share Your Research!
The inaugural Residents and Fellows Acute Care Research Showcase will be held on March 6th and you are invited to submit your work. Hosted by the ACRC, in partnership with CCTST, the purpose of this event is to highlight basic, translational, and clinical acute care research performed by residents and fellows. The Showcase will include keynote addresses, presentations by top abstract winners, poster session and awards. Submit your abstract by January 24th. Please contact Amy.Ewing@uc.edu for more details.
