University of Cincinnati College of Medicine Office of Research
News for the week of November 25, 2019

UC Health Office of Clinical Research.
The next session of the Clinical Research Orientation will be on December 5th, 2019 from 9-4pm. If you are interested in a refresher course or are a new research professional, come join the team for an informative day of training. Topics include consenting, interacting with monitors, Greenphire, research billing, research approvals, and Lab, Pharmacy and Imaging services. For more information, please contact Nate Harris at Nate.Harris@uchealth.com.

Howard Hughes Medical Institute Investigator Competition.
Research faculty may be interested in applying to the Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI) Investigator Competition. This competition is open to basic researchers and physician scientists who catalyze discovery research in basic and biomedical sciences, plant biology, evolutionary biology, biophysics, chemical biology, biomedical engineering, and computational biology. HHMI is seeking to appoint approximately 20 new investigators through a national open competition. This effort will expand HHMI’s community of nearly 300 investigators, who perform basic biological research across the nation. The deadline to apply is March 18, 2020. Get Your Men’s Health Club “Mustaches in Medicine” Calendar.
The Mustaches in Medicine Calendar is an annual project organized by the Men’s Health Club (medical students) to raise money for research in men’s health. The money funds a summer research stipend for a rising M2 studying a topic related to men’s health. Past research projects funded with this stipend have included projects related to MRI-guided prostate exams.

The calendars will be sold for $7/each and the Men’s Health Club can deliver calendars to faculty/staff/students on the medical campus if you provide your office number or student mailbox number.
