How to Stay Motivated in Research (Series of 5 Tips).
Why did you get into research in the first place? Perhaps you hoped to make a real difference through your research. Young scientists often start out with the ambition to find a cure or unearth a discovery that can change the world, unaware of how difficult the path to a breakthrough truly is. Remind yourself why you are working on your research project, and that everything you do and every step you take is important and serves a purpose.

Medical Student Research Opportunities Newsletter.
Jason Blackard, PhD, Director of Medical Student Research Initiatives, sends College of Medicine M1 students a Medical Student Research Opportunities newsletter. If you are interested in receiving this newsletter please reach out to Dr. Blackard at blackajt@ucmail.uc.edu.

UC Proteomics Laboratory
Phosphoproteomics capabilities available in the UC Proteomics Laboratory identifies a potential therapy for some types of leukemia (Learn more).

What is the Ryan Fellowship?
The University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, along with the Harvard Medical School and Dartmouth College School of Medicine are long-term recipients of student fellowship funding from the Albert J. Ryan foundation. Each year the College selects from 3-5 doctoral students who demonstrate outstanding research potential for a 2-year Ryan Fellowship. Beyond the honor itself, these students meet once a year for a 2-day scientific symposium with their counterparts from Harvard and Dartmouth.

Bridge Funding Program Applications due December 17th.
The Bridge Funding Program is a peer reviewed competition open to UC-paid, CoM full-time faculty. Qualified investigators must have a grant application pending with the NIH (new or competitive renewal). A pending NIH grant application abstract and reviewer critique (with score and review) are mandatory for this opportunity. Grants must be submitted through the CoM Operations & Finance group (i.e. a “UC CoM” proposal). Applications must be submitted electronically through the SUBMISSION PORTAL by 5:00pm on December 17, 2018.

Content to submit? Click here: https://redcap.research.cchmc.org/surveys/?s=3CX994Y34W