Back by popular demand, please join us for the 2022 Center for Addiction Research Summer Speaker Series. The series will highlight cutting-edge UC addiction research and UC-community collaborations related to prevention and treatment.

Host: T. John Winhusen, PhD
Donald C. Harrison Endowed Chair in Medicine
Professor of Psychiatry & Vice Chair of Addiction Sciences
Director, Center for Addiction Research, University of Cincinnati

UC (HEALing Communities Study) + Hamilton County Addiction Response Coalition partnership to engage the African American community to prevent overdoses

Wednesday, June 15, 2022
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Development of a Recombinant Humanized Anti-Cocaine Monoclonal Antibody

Wednesday, July 20, 2022
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Understanding and Impact of Medical Marijuana in Ohio

Wednesday, August 17, 2022
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Registration free, open to the public and now available for all presentations:
med.uc.edu/institutes/CAR/summer-speaker-series/speaker-series-2022

The Summer Speaker Series is presented by Urban Health Pathway of Next Lives Here.

One credit hour of Ohio continuing education credit will be offered in social work, counseling, (Ohio CSWMFT Social Work Provider RSXX038702 & Counselor Provider RCX012101), and psychology for each session. Details for requesting CE credit will be provided at the completion of each session.